

Eric Seitz
St. Paul Seminary, St. Paul, MN, Theology I
Sts. Anne and Joachim Parish, Fargo, ND

1. Who was the most influential person to you as a child? Probably my father.
2. Did you have any pets as a child? What kind? Our family had a dog named Bear, and two cats, Heidi and Petey. I was also responsible for the untimely deaths of many goldfish.
3. What did you do during the summertime as a child? Boy Scout camps, playing with friends, camping, and vacations.
4. What would people you know find surprising about you as a teen? In my early teen years, I was a huge fan of the band Linkin Park, whose music I now find laughable
5. In what ways have your parents influenced you the most? They were responsible for passing on the faith to me, which has affected every area of my life.
6. What is your most memorable travel experience? Climbing to the top of Preikestolen (Pulpit Rock) in Norway. Seriously, Google it. It's amazing.
7. If you could possess one super-human power, what would it be? The ability to cue music from nothing as I see appropriate.
8. What is something that you'd love to be great at? Any musical instrument. Preferably one that would make me famous in a rock band.
9. What is one lesson you've learned in life? Don't ever hit the snooze button.
10. What is something you've learned about the faith since entering seminary? There is no bottom to the faith. It just keeps on going.